

IBHS RESEARCH CENTER VISIT

We are very pleased that you will be joining us at the IBHS Research Center. Below is all of the logistical information you will need to plan your trip to South Carolina. Please feel free to contact Sherry Melton at smelton@ibhs.org / (803) 789-4256, if you have any additional questions.

Airports

The closest major airport to the IBHS Research Center is Charlotte Douglas International Airport, which is 41 miles north, and approximately a 45-minute drive from the lab; a nearby alternative is the Columbia (SC) Airport, which is 62 miles south, and approximately a one-hour drive from the lab.

The following two nearby regional airports allow private planes and are each located approximately 14 miles from the Research Center: Chester Catawba Regional Airport, (803) 385-6664; and McWhirter Field in Lancaster, which is off SC Highway 9, (803) 285-1565.

Directions

From Charlotte: I-77 South toward Columbia, take exit 65 – turn left on SC Highway 9 (Lancaster Highway), travel approximately 3.5 miles to SC Highway 99 (Richburg Road), then turn right. The IBHS site is located approximately 4 miles down on the left. There will be a large sign that says IBHS at the site.

From Columbia: I-77 North toward Charlotte, take exit 55 – turn right on SC Highway 97 (Great Falls Road), travel approximately 6 miles to SC Highway 99 (Richburg Road), then turn left. The IBHS site is located approximately 2.3 miles down Richburg Road on the right. There will be a large sign that says IBHS at the site.

Please Note: Some navigation systems will “see” this street address further south on Highway 99 (Richburg Road) than actually is the case. The IBHS Research Center is located just north of the Mount Nebo Church.
